

Chapter 15 Word List

Word List

- analyze (verb) 1. to divide something into parts; 2. to examine thoroughly and in detail
- bulletin (noun) a brief statement of information or news
- confidential (adjective) 1. relayed as a secret; 2. private
- delegate (noun) 1. a person with the authority to act for others; 2. a representative (verb) to choose a person as a representative
- dignity (noun) the condition of being worthy, honored, and respected
- element (noun) 1. one of more than one hundred basic substances from which all things are made; 2. a simple part
- extraordinary (adjective) 1. unusual; 2. remarkable; 3. uncommon
- gradual (adjective) 1. happening in small degrees or steps; 2. little by little
- ignite (verb) 1. to set on fire; 2. to begin to burn
- ingenious (adjective) 1. inventive; 2. clever
- joyful (adjective) 1. good-humored; 2. full of fun; 3. merry
- miniature (adjective) created or made on a very tiny scale
- neutral (adjective) 1. not taking either side in a dispute; 2. uninvolved
- parcel (noun) a wrapped package
- puncture (noun) a hole that is created by something pointed or sharp; (verb) to create a hole with something pointed or sharp
- retreat (verb) 1. to go or move back; 2. to withdraw from something; (noun) the act of moving back or withdrawing

- slander (verb) to talk falsely or incorrectly about someone;
(noun) a false or incorrect statement meant to harm another person's reputation
- technical (adjective) having to do with a mechanical or scientific subject
- tendency (noun) a habit of acting or thinking a certain way
- verge (noun) 1. the point that something happens or begins; 2. the brink

Additional Words

Challenge Words

- lame (adjective) physically disabled or weak
- malady (noun) a disease or disorder
- malignant (adjective) tending to produce death, destruction, or deterioration
- unique (adjective) 1. being the only one; 2. unusual
- vengeance (noun) punishment in retaliation for an offense

Word Study: Root Words

The Latin root capere means "take." A root often changes its form, and cap, cept, and ceipt are forms of capere.

- accept (verb) to willingly take or receive
- capacity (noun) the largest amount that can be held
- capture (verb) to take by force
- receipt (noun) a written statement that something has been received
- receive (verb) to take into one's possession
- reception (noun) a gathering to receive and welcome people